

Erratum: Absent, Incapable, and “Normal”: Understanding the Inclusiveness of Visually Impaired Students’ Experiences in Integrated Physical Education

TO OUR READERS: An error appeared in the ahead-of-print version of the following article:

Haegele, J.A., Ball, L.E., Zhu, X., Keene, M.A., & Nowland, L.A. Absent, incapable, and “normal”: Understanding the inclusiveness of visually impaired students’ experiences in integrated physical education. Adapted Physical Activity Quarterly. Advance online publication. <https://doi.org/10.1123/apaq.2022-0014>

On the fourth page of the article, in the second paragraph of the Methods section, the first name of co-author Lindsay Ball was misspelled as that of co-author Lindsey Nowland, thereby naming the wrong person as identifying as a blind and disabled woman. We apologize for the error. The article was corrected May 27, 2022.
